

Surprise night patrolling begins: DGP

BY STAFF REPORTER , ITANAGAR | AUG 09]: The police patrolling after evening will not only be intensified but officers of security forces up to IGP rank have been directed to conduct surprise night patrolling once in every week, DGP S Nitithyanandam said.

It may be mentioned here that the security network has been tightened in the Capital Complex in view of the ensuring Independence Day celebration. That is a usual practice, the DGP said, adding that everyone found on the road after late evening would be scrutinized to establish the antecedent and the reason for staying late away from home.

Five hundred police personnel each in Capital Complex and Papum Pare district were on the job during 11 pm to 4 am this morning, the DGP informed.

The patrolling led to detention of (PS-wise) - 10 vehicles & 16 persons by Itanagar PS, four vehicles & 10 persons by Naharlagun PS, three vehicle & four persons by PS Nirjuli, two vehicles & three persons by Banderdewa PS, totaling to 19 vehicles & 33 persons. Mostly drunken driving and without proper vehicle documents were detected, he added.

"NO wrong doers or anyone with ill intention would not be spared," the DGP cautioned.

[ARUNACHAL FRONT 10/08/2015]